New Snarl Over Steel Price Hike

Involves the OPA And Stabilization Chief John Collet And Chester Bowles

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14-(AP) — Several Congressmen told reporters today that OPA Administrator Chester Bowles was "on the way out" of government service.

These reports were in sharp contrast to the information which went the rounds last week end that Bowles was about to be promoted to the post of stabili-zation director. Six Injured of the wage-price policy controversy among those most closely concerned with the question, During Storm Bowles not only would not get the stabilization post but eventually would be let out of his job in the office of price administration. A member of the house, likewise asking anonymity, also insisted that Bowles was "out."

There was no confirmation or comment at the White House. Bowles could not be reached immediately.

The reasons for Bowles' reportedly changed prospects were not clarified anywhere at once.

Rumors Last Friday As recently as Friday, the OPA dministrator's close associates stated that he had had assurance he would become stabilization director in succession to John C. Collet, with authority over both wage and pricing policies. The chances for a quick end to the industry-paralyzing strike apparently hinged on government efforts to untangle a new price boost snarl.

The development-disclosed by officials of two separate federal agencies-came in the midst of attempts to patch up and announce a modified wage-price policy designed to halt other walkouts.

Until last night, the steel price boost—a prerequisite to settling the 25-day strike of 750,000 steel workers-had been generally regarded as settled at about $5 a ton. The last-minute hitch reportedly centered around whether the increase should apply to carbon steel alone or to alloy steel

Sedalia police this afternoon were informed a 13year-old boy, driving a Packard sedan, said to have been stolen at Kansas City Wednesday, had been picked up at Jefferson City shortly after noon today by Captain Duncan of the State Highway Patrol. Articles found in the car led the police to believe it was this youth who burglarized three places in Sedalia earlier in the day.

The boy, according to the officers, had escaped from a United States marshal in Kansas City, Kansas, Wednesday afternoon. The government charges against him were not given local police.

LABOR SCARCITY

MATERIAL SHORTAGE

UNION LABOR RESTRICTIONS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14-Elder statesman Bernard Baruch is the man who deserves plenty of credit for breaking one recent labormanagement deadlock. It was Baruch who secretly devised a formula for ending the steel strike and for declaring a year's moratorium on price and wage increases. Here's the back-stage story of what happened.

Baruch's principal concern has been post-war inflation. He decided that the only way inflation could be licked was to have one year of peak production which would pour consumer goods on the market.

However, Baruch also knew that the new contracts being negotiated between the CIO and Big Steel would expire in October. This would mean that next September labor would come back for another wage increase. Finally, Baruch knew that business had this very much on its mind, therefore was trying to get as much of a price increase now as possible.

So Bernie got hold of his old friend, Secretary of State Jimmy Byrnes. The two South Carolinians have not been very intimate of late, but they staged a reconciliation dinner at the Shoreham hotel the other day and got back to a solid, friendly basis.

Following this, Byrnes sold President Truman the idea of reopening negotiations for a steel settlement - provided both sides

Plan Increase

Outlined For Doubling Of Pre-War Strength

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14-(P)-National Guard of 622,500, more than double the prewar strength, was outlined by the war lepartment Wednesday.

The plans call for about 571,000 officers and men in the ground forces and 47,600 in the air forces. the other 3,900 presumably would be service and administrative for-

The plans were outlined in tentative allotments for each state sent to the governors by Maj. Gen. Butler B. Miltonberger, chief of the national guard.

The national guard is in addition to a regular army estimated to number 1,500,000 by mid-summer, and the organized reserve in which latest figures show 225,868 officers and 113,619 men signed

The prewar national guard comprised about 295,000 in the ground forces and 5,000 in the air forces, the latter composed of 19 observation squadrons (divisional aviation) and an additional ten actirated just before the outbreak of nostilities.

Proposed Units

In the postwar ground forces the principal units will be about 22 infantry divisions, two armored divisions and some 18 regimental combat teams. The air forces will include about 12 wings, 27 groups and 84 squadrons, as well as 12 control and warning

The plan contemplates that many of the units closely identified with the military history of their states will be continued. All former national guard air units will be reactivated, but the proposed expansion of the air forces ealls mainly for activation of new outfits.

The tentative allotments by tates include:

Kansas: 7,377 ground, 312 aircomprising one regiment of the 35th division, one fighter squad-

Missouri: 11,576 ground, 1,522 air—comprising 57th wing headquarters and headquarters squadron, one control squadron, one light bombardment squadron, one fighter squadron, two regiments of the 35th division.

Oklahoma: 13,226 ground, 696 air—comprising the 54th division, two fighter squadrons.

Eckles Fund Over $1,000 Mark

The Cpl. William C. Eckles fund has gone over the $1,000 mark, it was reported Wednesday by War Mothers' club No. 2, the group sponsoring the project to aid the disabled Sedalia World War II veteran.

Many contributions have come in from Smithton, Green Ridge, Windsor and Houstonia.

The Young Peoples department of the First Christian church, under the supervision of Miss Juanta Young, has sent in $30 to the fund, and it has been reported that the men's class has topped that figure. A number of county P. T. A. groups have contributed, and the Homemakers clubs, county extension units, have done their share, too, according to the report of the War Mothers' club. In fact, the sponsors say, the list of contributors is representive of the trade territory surrounding Sedalia. Various lodges, Garden clubs, Unions and other organizations in

Both Parties Interested In City Election

Bagby And Finnell Candidates For Mayor, Police Chief

City politics in Sedalia probably was never warmer than at the present, especially as far ahead of city caucuses, conventions and the election, which this year is on Tuesday April 2. Leaders in both the Republican and Democratic parties are getting their heads together to determine who will make the best candidates to submit to the voting public.

Mayor A. H. Wilks, definitely is e candidate, and if nominated will head the Republican ticket. However, some of the leaders in the Republican Party are divided as to whether Wilks should seek reelection and have gone so far as to mention other candidates.
